PLATFORM.

The Republican party of Sedgwick county respectfully and briefly states its convictions upon the questions of public interest.

It has full confidence in the integrity, statesmanship and high purposes of WILLIAM MCKINLEY, president of the United States. It is our belief that his administration has added to the renown and stability of Republican institutions and forms of government at home and abroad; that its influence marks the beginning of a new era in which humanity has been advanced to a higher plane, at home and in the nations of the world; that his administration has restored national prosperity, and we agree with the words of the great Democratic New York World, "it is a good time in a good country;" that it has placed the country where of right it properly belongs—the leader among the powers of the world.

That the administration of the affairs of this state, now in the hands of the Republican party, with a citizen of our own county, the Hon. W. E. Stanley, as chief executive, is capable, clean, deserving of, and does, receive our most cordial endorsement.

With intense satisfaction we commend the glorious record made by our army and navy and the unexampled gallantry of General Funston and our Kansas volunteers in the Philippine campaign.

It is our deliberate conviction that when on that May morning a year ago Dewey sailed into Manila bay and won the greatest naval victory of modern times, the American flag was in accordance with the laws of every civilized nation, and in accordance with the express desire, as it is written in the march of human events, of an overruling Providence, rightly placed upon the Philippine Islands. That this right has been recognized by every civilized power, ratified by the senate of this country by solemn treaty with the power recognized by the world as the nation owning the Philippines. That our right to be there and oppose armed insurrection is no longer a party question; to uphold the government so long as armed forces are opposing it in its efforts to establish a stable government there, is loyalty; to oppose it is disloyalty. We condemn and denounce the unpatriotic and un-American utterances of all who are giving encouragement to the Filipinos in their resistance to the American flag. Never yet has the old flag retreated before any armed foe, and wherever raised there it must stay.

The aggregation in this county known as the Fusion party is neither moved by, nor in possession of, a conviction or moral principle. It has abandoned every issue which brought it into life save the greed for office, and it now seeks by having its platform of treason adopted by the people of this county to bring the fair name and fame of Sedgwick county into disrepute and to disgrace the name of the gallant soldier which it bears.

We are opposed to aggregated capital, whether organized in the form of trusts, corporations or otherwise for the purpose of controlling the industrial affairs of the people, and we demand of our party in this state and in the nation such legislation which will at all times be for the best interests of all the people. That it is our conviction that every great question in which the people of this country have been interested has been in the past and will be in the future, settled in the interest of the people, by that genius of justice and right which prevails in and which brought the Republican party into existence; that it has the ability and integrity to properly settle and adjust the relations of capital and labor in the interest of the people.

HUNTINGTON IN FULL CONTROL.

He is the Purchaser of the Crocker's South Pacific Stock.

San Francisco, Sept. 22.—Hill and Son's information has been received that the recent visit of James S. Crocker to this coast had much to do with the Crocker deal. C. P. Huntington is now virtually in control of the Southern Pacific. Other outside holdings are also said to have been purchased by the same syndicate in sufficient amounts to secure to Huntington the absolute control of the road.

San Francisco, Sept. 22.—The Post says of the sale of the Crocker interests in the Southern Pacific Railroad company has been made and that the stock has been absorbed by an English syndicate. The Post's statement is in the form of an interview with an "intimate friend," and goes on to say that the Crocker has removed their offices from the Southern Pacific building and have taken up almost an entire floor in the Crocker building across the street from the Southern Pacific offices. The Crocker, George and Will, are going to New York in a few days to settle up their railroad business and George Crocker will then take up his residence in the city permanently, in deference to the wishes of his wife, who likes the metropolis. "The value of the Crocker interests in the Southern Pacific company," continued the Post's informant, "is closely estimated at $15,000,000, but the figure paid by the purchasers will be a little over that amount. George Crocker's share of the purchase price is about $4,000,000. Of this sum he has expressed his determination to invest the major portion in real estate in New York, Chicago and San Francisco."

San Francisco, Sept. 22.—The thirty-second infantry, from Fort Leavenworth, Kan., arrived here today and went into camp at the Presidio. The troops came in three sections. Colonel Craig and Lieutenant Colonel Sutherland are in command of the regiment, which is one of the finest bodies of men that have arrived here for many months.

NOW RAISES RAGERS

William C. Whitney Refuses to Talk Politics

WHEN HE CAN TALK HORSE

Is in the Business for the Pure Love of It.

New York, Sept. 22.—The World says: In the cool, grassy paddock at that Sheephead Bay race course almost any afternoon during the recent meeting, a quiet, carefully groomed, studious looking man might have been seen wandering around among the horses, his hands carelessly thrust in his pockets, a look of tranquil enjoyment on his pale face.

It is a pleasant spot for a lover of horses with not a disturbing echo of the brazen-throated ring, and only a drowsy sit under the shade of old trees and watch the clean limbed dainty thoroughbreds as they are being prepared for the race with all the care bestowed upon a debutante.

And then you see them come rushing in after the battle, their blood on fire, reeking, red eyes with heaving sides and wide open nostrils.

As the quiet man, usually alone, walks about the paddock, trainers stop rubbing their horses to look after him with respectful interest and even the lordly jockeys loitering in their many-colored jackets condescend to show some slight curiosity.

For they recognize in him the owner of the greatest racing stable in America. The most generous patron the American turf has ever known, Mr. William C. Whitney.

"Jim," said the late Gen. Buford as he mint julep on the veranda at Basque Bonita one fine day, "if you had three wishes and they could be granted what would they be?"

"Marshall," said Jim, after deep reflection, "first I'd want to be a white man; second I want to own more fine race horses than any white man in Kentucky; third, I'd like to have such a fine 'tain' to 'dem hawes dat ebery white man in Kentucky would want to be me."

Mr. Whitney has lived to realize the wishes of poor Jim. No other man in America ever before owned so many high-class thoroughbreds; no man in America ever before housed them so splendidly, and no man was ever so generously envied by lovers of horses who would like to be him.

Mr. Whitney came into racing very modestly. Sidney Paget a relative by marriage, three years ago bought the jumper Shillelagh. She was a success. Then Sir Vassar was added to the string, and Sir Vassar was a success. It began to be rumored that Mr. Whitney was being seen and now on pleasant afternoons at Morris Park and at Sheephead Bay.

Presently reports came from Kentucky of his purchases of royally bred mares, the dams of the kings and queens of the turf; of famous performers, and of highly tried yearlings. They were all shipped to Mr. Whitney.

A year ago last spring it was known that Mr. Whitney intended to race in the name and colors of his racing partner, Sidney Paget, and that neither time nor money would be spared in winning success.

Last year Samuel Hildreth, connected to be one of the foremost horsemen in America, was made trainer for the stable and during the winter Richard Clawson was employed for jockey.

When last year Mr. Whitney paid $50,000 to Gideon and Daly for their great two-year-old, Jean Beraud, horsemen stared. Jean Beraud almost won in his two of the three-year-old classics.

This year's addition to the racing stable has been numerous, but most of them have been made with a view of the great breeding establishment of the future. For example, Admiration is the finest three-year-old filly on the turf, and Killashandra has beaten all the season's best two-year-old fillies. They will both carry the stable colors to the front in many a race, but their real triumphs will begin when they produce sons and daughters to perpetuate their fame.

If old Frank Harper could ever be induced to leave his beloved Kentucky and visit Mr. Whitney's place on Long Island, where many of the thoroughbreds are now cared for, his opinion would be interesting. It is a long cry from old Frank's farm, where the pickaninies roll in the long blue grass and where Longfellow tethered under a shed, kicking at the flies, used sometimes to hit a fly and sometimes to hit a pickaninny, to Mr. Whitney's splendid establishment, where the humblest selling-plaster is housed like a prince of the blood.

There are 300 acres in this place and the home of the horses is an immense structure of stone and iron and wood, 85 feet long by 125 feet wide. On this farm there is a dirt track of a mile and a half.

GOOD COFFEE MAKER

Experience With the Berry.

"I have gained twenty-five pounds since I left off coffee and began drinking Postum Food Coffee in its place."

"I had become very thin in flesh and suffered terribly with heartburn; was a nervous wreck, with headache practically all the time until one dreadful day when the good doctor told me I must quit drinking coffee, as he had nothing left to try, to relieve me."

"I could not drink tea and had tried everything else even Postum, but put it by at the first trial, because it was tasteless."

"Forced to eat again, I determined to see if it could not be made palatable and found at once that when I followed directions and boiled it long enough, that I not only liked it but gave it to my husband for several days without his finding it out. I have gained twenty-five pounds since taking up Postum. I am healthier today than I have been for years and give Postum all the credit. Please do not use my name in public."

This lady lives in Burlington, Des Moines county, Iowa, and the name will be furnished by the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich., to those interested.

What is

Cream of Tartar?

When the juice which is pressed from grapes for wine-making ferments, the acid of the fruit is crystallized and precipitated. This is collected, refined to absolute purity, and ground to a powder. This is cream of tartar.

Fruit acids are among the most wholesome and important constituents of the food of man. They are absolutely requisite to maintain health. In grape cream of tartar there are combined the most useful of leavening agencies and a most healthful food article.

This highly refined acid of the grape, or cream of tartar, is the material from which Royal Baking Powder is made. It is many times more expensive than ingredients used in many baking powders, but being healthful in itself, it adds healthfulness to the food instead of degrading it.

In imitation baking powders poisonous alum is used instead of healthful cream of tartar. Such powders seriously affect the health.

We have forty-eight of them under shelter now, and I expect to get a number of good campaigners out of the bunch.

"Mr. Hildreth seems to think pretty well of several and says we are well prepared for wintering them. We were somewhat hampered in the matter of suitable quarters last winter, and that is why the big barn was constructed. It probably accounts for the poor showing made by several of the two-year-olds in our stable. However, I don't believe in excuses. They may not be as good as most of the youngsters they have met."

"What do you expect to do with the yearlings and other horses you have in England?" Mr. Whitney was asked.

"Oh, they are a side issue, an incident," was the reply. "As a matter of fact I may never see them again. The rumor that I intend to have a big stable in England is ridiculous. I am not in racing to make money, but to enjoy myself. The greatest pleasure to be had out of racing is in watching your horses run, and this I couldn't do were I to send my best ones to the other side. The yearlings I have in England will be looked after by Sir Edward Colebrooke, who married a sister of my racing partner, Sidney Paget."

For the first time since one day last week, pointing to Mr. Whitney who was watching a horse being saddled:

"Whitney has the fever, and it will never leave his blood. In this world, if you live long enough, you will grow tired of everything, of men, of women, of yachts and of diners, of politics and of money making, but when the fascination of the race track gets into your blood it never leaves. I have given it up many times and I always return. It is the greatest sport and the poorest business ever devised by the wit of man."

It is all epitomized in the line over the entrance to that stock farm in Kentucky: "I want nothing but a good horse."

NORRELIEF FOR 30 YEARS.

I have been troubled for the last twenty years with bronchial affection, and at times have been bedridden. I have tried a great many cough remedies, but found no relief until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar. I can honestly recommend Foley's Honey and Tar as a quick relief, reliable, pleasant to take and a sure cure for diseases of the throat and lungs. Minerva Smith, 414 Washington Ave., Danville, Ill. STOPPED THE BACKACHE.

A. R. Bess, Morgantown, Ind., writes: I was afflicted with kidney disease and had to get up quite often during the night, and suffered severe pains in the back and with backache. I used Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three bottles I am entirely cured. Hocking Drug Co., G. Gehring and Wells Miller, druggists.

Explosion Soda Fountain Kills a Man.

Vacaville, Cal., Sept. 21.—By the explosion of a soda fountain in a bakery today, Karl Andler, an employee, was killed. The proprietor, who was filling the fountain, was uninjured.

As usually treated a sprain will disable the injured person for three or four weeks, but if Chamberlain's Pain Balm is freely applied a complete cure may be effected in a very few days. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism, cuts, bruises and burns. For sale by Druggists.

WELCOME TO PRESIDENT DIAZ

McKinley Will Ignore Him to Visit the National Capital.

Washington, Sept. 22.—In connection with President Diaz's visit to Chicago, it is expected that President McKinley will meet the Mexican president at Chicago and invite him to come to Washington, as his guest and the guest of the nation. Tentative plans along these lines have been considered and many definite arrangements will be made when the official announcement is received as to President Diaz's intentions. Up to today, the Mexican ambassador has not received the official notification of the president's plans but it is expected that it will be at hand within the next day or two. The ambassador is now on his way here from Manchester-by-the-Sea, and on the receipt of the notification he will proceed in person to Chicago to deliver it to the proper authorities there. Diaz's route northward is expected to be through San Antonio and St. Louis. At the latter point he may make a stop, as the Little American club of that city have telegraphed the ambassador an urgent request that the president honor St. Louis with a visit.

In recognition of the presence of a foreign ruler within the country, it is probable that a representative of President McKinley will meet the Mexican president at the United States border and accompany him throughout his stay in this country. An army officer of high rank is likely to be selected for this service. No less than fourteen battalions from many states have been extended to President Diaz to be their guest during his stay in the United States. But the undersigned among officials is that he will not be able to accept many of them.

SLAVERY IN HAWAII

Declared to Exist Virtually, and of the Worst Kind.

UPHELD BY LOCAL COURTS

It Is Asked If the Constitution Covers the Islands.

Washington, Sept. 22.—George D. Gear, an attorney of Honolulu, called at the state department today to present a statement relative to the ill-treatment of coolie labor in the Hawaiian Islands. He asserts that the supreme court of Hawaii by its rulings is sustaining a system of slavery of the worst kind in the islands, in violation of the constitution of the United States, and he asks that the attorney general be requested to declare whether or not the constitution does cover the islands.

THEY'RE A MIGHTY HARD LOT

Spanish and Portuguese Contract Laborers Worse Than Chinese.

Honolulu, Sept. 22.—The British tramp steamer Victoria, Sept. 22.—The British tramp steamer Victoria, whose cargo of emigrants for this port had been the subject of a good deal of international diplomatic discussion, arrived here on the 21st. Instead of nearly 600 Portuguese and Spanish emigrants, who had signed to take passage on her, she brings only 54. Before the Victoria left Maderia, United States Consul Jones took occasion to notify the men and women who had signed to leave their native land for the sugar plantations of Hawaii, that the islands had been annexed to the United States and that the labor contracts they had made would not hold. The prospective emigrants were informed that they would be landed at Honolulu and would have to take their chances of getting work after they arrived. Two hundred of the men and women who had shipped deserted the vessel. "They are the hardest lot ever landed here," is the opinion of one and all, and they are classed as inferior to both the Chinese and Japanese who come here under labor contracts.

IRON FAMINE GROWING WORSE

Prices Steadily Mounting and Supply is Scarcely Keeping.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 21.—The iron market has gone steadily on toward a higher level in the week. Nothing in current events gives any suggestion of a change from the succession of surprises that have come in the past six months, but close students of the situation, with history in mind, are disposed to limit their predictions to the middle of the coming year. Stocks meantime grow less. The demand for iron in the balance of the year promises to be still in excess of the capacity of active furnaces. Disappointment has been the lot of producers and importing producers on all hands. The week has brought further notice of a shortage on Lake Superior iron and shipments are likely to fall at least one million tons short of sales and estimated output of consuming producers.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIARRHOEA.

A PROMINENT VIRGINIA EDITOR.

Had Almost Given Up, but Was Brought Back to Perfect Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

READ HIS EDITORIAL.

From the Times, Hillsville, Va.

I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hope of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life—G. R. Moore, Editor of Times.

Mrs. Craven Loses the First Round

San Francisco, Sept. 21.—The first of the many petitions filed by Miss Nellie R. Craven in her renewed attack upon the estate of James G. Fair was denied by Superior Judge Trott today. In deciding against Mrs. Craven's claim, Judge Trott thought it unnecessary to file a written opinion. Mrs. Craven's petition being barred by the statute of limitations.
